CONVENTION PRIORITY CLAIMS UNDER PH RULES

Basis for priority must have been registered in the office of origin before the claim of priority is allowed

HOW IS PRIORITY CLAIMED IN THE PHILIPPINES?

STEP 1

- The Examiner checks if the priority application has been registered in the IP office where it was filed.

STEP 2

- IF NOT, the Examiner will issue an Allowance and Deferment (if no other issue/objection)
- Applicant is given 6 months to submit the priority document.

STEP 3

- After (6) months:
 - The Applicant may submit a COPY of the priority registration; OR
 - The Examiner may check the FOREIGN IP DATABASE (e.g., JPLatPat; TESS) if the mark has been registered

HOW IS PRIORITY CLAIMED IN THE PHILIPPINES?

STEP 4

- If NOT YET REGISTERED, the Applicant may file a request of one (1) year to submit the priority document.
- IF NO REQUEST WAS FILED: the CLAIM OF PRIORITY is WAIVED
 - Example:
 - Application Date in PH: 01 February 2022
 - Claim of Priority in KR: 01 December 2021
- NO PRIORITY DOCUMENT SUBMITTED:
 - Application Date: 01 February 2022 (no priority)

STEP 5

- AFTER ONE (1) YEAR:
 - The Applicant may submit a COPY of the priority registration; OR
 - The Examiner may check the FOREIGN IP DATABASE (e.g., JPLatPat; TESS) if the mark has been registered
- IF NO PRIORITY DOCUMENT IS SUBMITTED- CLAIM OF PRIORITY IS WAIVED
