The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://asean-ipregister.wipo.net/data-exchange-authorizations/kh>. The page title is "Data Exchange Authorizations". Below the title is the JPO logo (Japan Patent Office). The page displays a form for "Third Party (Office / Organization): Data Restriction". The form includes a dropdown menu with "JPO" selected, a "Patents" dropdown, and radio buttons for "Data only" and "Data And Documents" (selected). A "Save Changes" button is visible. Below the form, there are two cards representing existing authorizations. The first card is for JPO with "Data restriction: Data only" and includes fields for "App-client-id" and "App-client-secret". The second card is for WIPO with "Data restriction: Data and Documents" and includes fields for "App-client-id" and "App-client-secret". An "Add Third Party" button is located to the right of the cards.
