- Grants;
- Refusals;
- Renewals;
- Announcements of changes in the legal status;
- An alphabetic index of owners;
- A numerical index of applications.

III. Matters concerning classifying, reclassifying and indexing of industrial design information according to the classification systems applied

To classify industrial design applications, the International Classification of Industrial Designs, the seventh edition is used.

IV. Search file establishment and upkeep

V. Activities in the field of computerized search systems for industrial designs

* Since April 2003 "Common Software - ID" is into production

* The Office's computer infrastructure is as follows:

- Internet's network
- Web servers, e-mail (gheorghe.bucsa@osim.ro), etc.
- TCP/IP Network- 100 MB/s
- 1XALPHA 21 DO Server, with Digital Unix 4.0D
- Server GS 80; 1 GRAM; 500 GB HDD in RAID

* The hardware used by Industrial Design Department:

- 20 PC Digital Pentium;
- two scanners HP ScanJet ADF;
- one laser printer XEROX 4510;

VI. Administration of industrial design services available to the public (relating to facilities, e.g., for lodging applications, registering designs, assisting clients with search procedures, obtaining official publications and registry extracts)

The Romanian industrial design collection and application collection comprise in excess of 54.607 designs.

The Romanian collection is structured by following both the LOC.(7) and the numerical criterion.

O.S.I.M. performs industrial design information services to the public upon request and against payment, on the state of the art, on the legal statuses of certificates and the prevention of infringement risks.

Any service may be requested by mail, e-mail or personally at the OSIM.
